Daniel Werner

wernerd@stanford.edu | (202) 617-7722 | Website

Education

2025 — Stanford University Stanford, CA
Predoctoral Research Fellowship (Prof. Matthew Gentzkow)

2021 — 2025 University of Chicago Chicago, IL
B.A. in Mathematics and B.A. in Economics (with Honors), magna cum laude
GPA: 3.93/4.00 | Major GPA: 3.94/4.00

Research

Working Papers

"Crime and the Classroom: The Effects of Local Violence on Schooling Decisions in Mexico"
Under Review, World Development Perspectives.

Work In Progress

"Blame, Credit, and Coverage: Media Attention and Presidential Particularism in U.S. Federal Disaster Relief"

Research Experience

2025 — Predoctoral Research Fellow, Stanford University Stanford, CA
Faculty mentor: Matthew Gentzkow.

2024 Analyst, Macro Research Team, KKR New York, NY
Studied reinsurance markets and catastrophe bonds in portfolio-optimization.

2023 Intern, Time Series Team, Federal Reserve Bank of New York New York, NY
Developed team's Multivariate Core Trend inflation model (a dynamic factor model of inflation persistence).

2022 Research Assistant, University of Chicago Chicago, IL
Faculty mentor: Harald Uhlig.

Awards and Honors

2025 David S. Hu Award for Best Undergraduate Economics Thesis, University of Chicago

2021–25 Dean's List, University of Chicago (2021–22, 2023–24, 2024–25)

2022 Jeff Metcalf Research Stipend, University of Chicago
$5,000 stipend to work as RA and conduct independent research for the summer.

2021–2025 National Merit Scholarship, University of Chicago

2020 Hispanic National Merit Scholar

Skills and Languages

Software Python, R, MATLAB, Stata, Java, Git, LaTeX, Bash

Languages English (native), Spanish (native), French (intermediate)